
PROGRAMME: BREAKFASTMEETING IS ELECTRICITY IN NAMIBIA STILL AFFORDABLE?

Wednesday, 29 November 2006

07h00 – 11h00

Nampower Convention Centre, - Omaere Restaurant

- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 07h00 - 07h30 | Registration |
| 07h30 - 07h45 | Welcoming remarks
Mr. Hubert Schillinger
Resident Representative, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung |
| 07h45 - 08h00 | Perspective on the Diminishing Generation Supply Capacity and Plans to address this problem in Namibia
Honourable Erki Nghimtina, Minister of Mines and Energy (tbc)
Ministry, of Mines and Energy |
| 08h00 - 08h15 | Perspective on its role in regulating electricity tariffs and mechanisms to ensure that suppliers adhere to these regulations
Mr. Siseho Simasiku, Chief Executive Officer
Electricity Control Board of Namibia |
| 08h15 - 08h30 | Perspective on Institutional Efficiency and Effectiveness of Electricity Distribution in Namibia
Mr. Uli von Seylitz, Chief Executive Officer
EMCON |
| 08h30 - 08h45 | Perspective on the Impact of the Diminishing Supply of Electricity on business activities in Namibia
Mr. Hennie Fourie, Chief Executive Officer
Namibia Manufacturers Association |
| 08h45 - 10h00 | Discussions
Questions & Responses |
| 10h00 | End of Discussions |