

Youth Leadership Development Programme

Background – Objectives – Core Values
Modules & Curriculum

Hubert René Schillinger, FES Namibia

Windhoek, January 2007

Background

Objectives

- To develop a cadre of future political & social leaders
- From different political persuasions & different walks of life
- Which espouse a number of core values
- By equipping them with
  - Essential leadership skills
  - Factual knowledge
  - Increased awareness about ethics & values
  - Experience with helping others

Core values

- Tolerance
- Openness
- Personal integrity
- Respect for others & themselves
- Hard work
- Social responsibility
- Compassion
- Preparedness to work for the common good

Modules & Curriculum

Skills:

Leadership in Organis.
Moderation/ Chairing
Presentation / Visualis.
Public Speaking
CV Writing
Personal Time
Management
Proposal Writing etc.

Knowledge:

Global Trends – International Relations
Namibia's position Principles of democracy & political system
The Namibian
Economy
Social Problems Nam.

Values:

Responsibilities of political & social leaders
Ethics for leaders
Gender-relations
Different value
systems

Practical Experience:

Visits to understand realities on the ground

Implementing Social Project

8-10 Modules

Expected Outcome

By the end of the programme participants will be

- Used to deliver presentations & public speeches
- Able to moderate/chair meetings
- Able to better manage their own lives
- Knowledgeable about fundamental political issues
- Aware of ethical principles & fundamental values of responsible leadership
- Have acquired hands-on experience in helping others